

Fresh Snow, Sunshine and Bold Tricks: Perfect Premises for Freestyle Action in the Senoner'park Hochkar!

If you are under the impression that freestyle action is only happening in the western part of Austria, you don't know the Senoner'park Hochkar. On the fabulous pics of our latest action shooting with freeski and snowboard pros like Felix Prankl and Matthias Gober, you can see that the East of the country is nothing short of spectacular freestyle action!

Except for some minor changes, the complete Senoner'park is ready for you and your best tricks! Simply check out our photographer Stefan Voitl's newest frames and you will see, that it is about time that you get up the Hochkar yourselves. On the wicked new pictures the freeski pros Felix Prankl, Dominik Sagmeister and Torge Nagel, together with the snowboard shredheads Matthias Gober, Johannes Grünbichler and Dominik Weghaupt, demonstrate how to rock the massive obstacles in the Senoner'park!

Our pros show you how it's done, maxing out the great variety at the Senoner'park. Rainbow-, Flat/Down-, Curved- and Butter Boxes, as well as our Rail Line, Kickers and a Funbox provide a lot of opportunities to get your freak out on the Hochkar! If the weather is game in the next few days, a Rainbow Rail and a Corner Jump will be added too.

Considering this wide range of obstacles, naturally also the riders were more than happy riding the park at the action shooting. Especially during the sunny morning session the Senoner'park was „just off the hook“ for Hochkar-local Felix Prankl!

„The kicker was in a perfect condition and all riders were impressed by the various combinations the park has to offer“, Felix gets enthusiastic when talking about the shoot-out.

„There are lots of opportunities to get creative at the Hochkar. I love the fact that the boxes, rails and kickers are spread all over the park up there.“ If all this is matched with some freshly fallen snow, there is actually no more reason for you to finish
